

Workshop Report on Ethics in Research, Copyright

A comprehensive three-day workshop on Ethics in Research and Copyright was organized on October 17th, October 23rd, and October 30th, 2019, by Mr. Subhodip Chatterjee. The workshop delved into the intricacies of ethical conduct in research, emphasizing the principles of scientific integrity, objectivity, respect for participants, and data confidentiality. Mr. Chatterjee provided valuable insights into the evolving landscape of copyright law, equipping participants with an understanding of intellectual property rights, fair use, and the legal framework governing the dissemination of scholarly works.

Objective of the workshop: To impart knowledge and understanding of ethical principles and copyright laws in the context of research.

Workshop Content:

Day 1:

- * Introduction to Ethics in Research
- * Principles of Research Ethics: Beneficence, Non-maleficence, Respect for Autonomy, Justice
- * Ethical Issues in Research: Informed Consent, Privacy, Confidentiality, Conflict of Interest
- * Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty

Day 2:

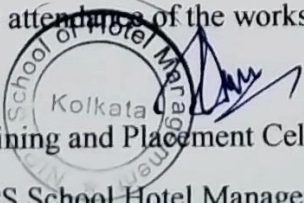

- * Copyright Law: Basics and Application
- * Types of Copyrighted Works
- * Fair Use Doctrine
- * Creative Commons Licenses
- * Copyright Infringement and Consequences

Day 3:

- * Ethical and Legal Considerations in Research Dissemination
- * Responsible Authorship and Credit Allocation
- * Open Access and Data Sharing
- * Intellectual Property Rights in Academia

Conclusion: The three-day workshop on Ethics in Research and Copyright was a valuable learning experience for the students. It equipped them with the necessary knowledge and skills to navigate the ethical and legal complexities of research. The workshop's interactive format and engaging content fostered a deeper understanding of these important topics.

The attendance of the workshop was Day 1: 80, Day 2: 76, Day 3: 81.

Training and Placement Cell

NIPS School Hotel Management